

RED CLAW
MORNINGTON PENINSULA

2018 Red Claw Sauvignon Blanc

The 2018 season on the Mornington Peninsula was characterised by a warm and extended summer. The wines are intensely flavoured, yet poised and balanced, ensuring their longevity.

Region	Mornington Peninsula
Alc	13%
Winemaker	Tom Carson
Viticulturist	Martin Sampson
Harvested	7 March

Winemaking

The fruit was handpicked, hand sorted and crushed before it was pressed into tank. Cold settled, the wine was fermented in stainless steel until it was bottled in June 2018.

Tasting note

Bright and aromatic, with intense citrus aromas, floral notes and a lovely gentle herbal edge. The palate is crisp and crunchy, with the fruit sweetness well balanced by clean acidity.
